

Thrift Abstract #3681

Original is located at the Dublin Public Records Office, Dublin, Ireland.

By Gertrude Thrift, a Dublin genealogist researching the Courtenay family in 1910.

The original is three pages, a little larger than 11 X 14 inches. This file prints each page on two; trim the margins and tape overlapping sections together to get three pages at 11 x 14 inches each.

Scanned in Feb. 2000 by Tom Thatcher from photocopies made from LDS microfilm.

Suggestions upon which to search in Ireland: - Search the wills of the Rochester family in Ireland look at Sir Arthur Barrett's will; he d. in 1640. Search the wills of the Forthome family in Ireland. Search the wills of the Macdonnell family - Eddle of Cherrin & try to prove the marriage with Mary Macdonnell. Try to prove marriage of Francis Courtney with Susanna Langford & Anne Lyndon.

Richard was the name of the of Colthide kat. By the marriage of one other son. Amongst English must be found a Richard Courtney 4 sons and 2 daughters. The sons do not come of Sir John Rochester. Their son Arthur Rochester a dear relative of Richard Courtney. Gertrude had 12 a Bangor Co. Down. Gertrude had still another dau Susan wife of Major Edward Courtney. Missign Edward Courtney was Pine Hill, Devon.

* Francis Courtney, son of Richard C. distinguished himself at the battle of Blackwater (1598) against Owen O'Real by rescuing his friend and Col. - the Earl of Boneroy.

Search the Earl of Boneroy's will & see if he mentions Francis Courtney
